

The AHOOGAH HORN

Volume 28 Issue 7

Watchung Valley Region of the Model "A" Restorers Club

July 2008

4th of July Parade

July 4th was a little gray, but we went to the Florham Park Parade anyway. Three "A's", and a Model "T" braved the weather, which held up rather well. The Florham Park Parade winds its way mostly through back streets, and, as always, is rather well attended by crowds the whole way.

Pictures from International Model "A" Day Picnic at Tom Fritz's

After an early morning stop at Tom Fritz's house (6:00 am) to drop off our "A", Dick and I went to the balloon festival in Readington. After the balloon rise, we arrived back at Tom's house around 10:30 am and helped set up for the joint picnic. Twelve model "A's" were there, including Jack and Jean LeCarl's, Louise and Jack Martin's, Tom Arnold's, ours and Tom Fritz's.

A note to all who missed this picnic, you missed a great meal. Chef Fritz makes a mean bar-b-que. After a great lunch, the gang was off on a tour to the Leonard J. Buck Garden in Far Hills, N.J. and walked off the meal. After the tour, it was back to Tom's house for some great dessert. Thanks Tom for a great day.
